KÆRE MEDLEM

Med et historisk stort Outturn i Danmark, byder vi februar måned velkommen. Det er samtidigt startskudet til SMWS Festival 2022, hvor der afholdes Casual Day onsdag den 2. februar i forbindelse med Festivalen. Billet til Casual Day kan købes på smws.dk under smagninger.

I forhold til den nærtstående Festival, er der nogle få ændringer:

Den skotske aften om torsdagen starter en time tidligere, så kom glad kl. 19.15.

Da Jim desværre heller ikke kommer i år, vil Olaf Meier i hans sted afholde smagningen Time Travel: 1979, og de to minismagninger The North Remembers vil blive afholdt af Casper Helverskov.

Uden mad og drikke, duer helten som bekendt ikke. Vi tilbyder igen i år en lækker frokostbuffet under Festivalen, som du kan gå til når det passer ind i dit program. Af hensyn til køkkenet skal buffeten bestilles på forhånd, og sidste frist for dette er onsdag den 2. februar kl. 09.00. Du kan se udvalget i buffeten i Festival programmet på smws.dk.

Du har også mulighed for at booke bord i en af restauranterne ved at ringe direkte til dem. Der vil i Bistecca være et godt tilbud til Festival gæster.

Vi glæder os til at afholde en SMWS Festival på normale vilkår – præcis som vi kender det.

Datoerne for forårets Casual Days rundt i landet falder endeligt på plads umiddelbart efter Festivalen – vi kan dog allerede nu løfte sløret for at de 2 perioder kommer til at falde i henholdsvis de sidste 2 uger af marts, afsluttede lørdag den 2. april – samt i juni måned sluttende 1 uge før skoleferien.

Med disse ord ønskes du god fornøjelse med læsningen.

Med venlig hilsen
Thomas Korsgaard

An aura of being calm, cool and collected surrounded this dram, deeply rich and tropical with candied pineapple, piña colada cupcakes with kiwi frosting and golden sultanas. The taste was that of, 'Ispahan' inspired crisp macaron cakes filled with a smooth fragrant rose buttercream, tart raspberries and sweet lychee - a heavenly delight! As we returned to mother earth and added a drop of water the scent was that of toffee, mango, caramel and cocoa powder before we all relaxed with a classic cherry clafoutis and a mug of lemon and lime, ginger and thyme tea sweetened by a liberal spoonful of runny honey as a sweetener.

Savoury and herbal aromas progressed towards toasted cereals and nuts while a floral fragrance supported sandalwood and thick clotted cream sweetened into fudge. Plenty of chilli, cloves and ginger on the palette softened into honey roasted cashew nuts with a squeeze of citrus before a delightful beeswax mouthfeel fused with waxy orange skin. Water immediately released more oils that suggested freshly snuffed out candles and coconut oil. Cinnamon and nutmeg now arrived with balsa wood and herbal notes of green malt. The now soft and juicy palette was abundant with pineapple, waxed lemons and orange while manuka honey combined with carnations on a dry grape skin finish.

After eight years in ex-bourbon wood, we moved this into a first-fill oloroso hogshead. The nose suggested pot-pourri in a mahogany bowl and eating butterscotch and orange travel sweets, sitting on a sunny beach. The palate started with oak tannins, citrus peel and apple skins, but then settled into marmalade, apricot jam and teasing traces of sweet sherry and tobacco. The reduced nose combined strawberry laces and roasted peach with an evocation of dusty bodegas in Jerez. The palate now had brown sugar and charred pineapple, lemon meringue pie and gooseberry tart, with the texture of fruit sweets wrapped in waxed paper.

At first we got the impression we'd just prised open a tin of old school custard powder with this impression of dusty sweetness. We also noted kumquat, peaches and condensed milk. Water brought out toasted coconut, orange oils, citrus curds and banana daiquiri. The neat palate was pure fruit bomb material. Bags of exotic and green fruits all muddled together, along with a few firmer notes of heather ales and finger limes. With water there was vanilla sponge cake drizzled with honey, banana ice cream, some tree bark and long, sweet and satisfyingly luscious, fruity finish.

Lovely to try this great make from a refill cask we all agreed. The natural robustness of the distillate showed through straight away with canvass, dry cereals, starched linens, chalk and mineral oil. After that it became sweeter with toffee, vanilla pods and ginger biscuits. Water brought sweeter cereal tones, ozone freshness, sheep wool and savoury miso. The sense of a taut, well-structured distillate. The mouth was wonderfully rich with condensed milk, sharp green apple, muddled herbs, fennel and hessian. A dollop of malt extract too. Reduction brought more oily and mineral tones with green tea, flower honey and charred pineapple.

The initial nose suggested apple pips, pruning roses and sweet earthy tones. Scented fabrics, linens, crushed oatcakes and sweet barley extract. With water we found classical notes of pineapple boiled sweets, banana bread, malt loaf and crystallised stem ginger. The neat palate showed an initial blast of freshness with polo mints, then more typical confectionary notes of jelly beans, red liquorice, and chocolate lime sweets. Beyond that a lick of gooseberry acidity and spicy cinnamon. Water brought out a buttery richness, muddled fresh herbs, Amaretti biscuit, nettles and lemon cough drops.

The nose opened with the delicate sweetness of heather honey, lavender and rose petals alongside apricots, peaches and red apples served with cherry yoghurt. Juicy fruits continued onto the palette as banana and melon joined barbecued pineapple before liquorice and Chinese five spice emerged with a whisp of smoke. Dried seaweed and barnacles were released with a dash of water while sweet aromas of praline, white chocolate and hard fruity sweets became encased in thick smoke and toasted cereals. Flavours of calvados joined orange skin, fennel seeds and bitter lemon as we moved onto a finish bound by red vermouth, spicy wood and waxy textures and charred pineapple.

An amazing aroma of golden syrup, toffee apples, marzipan cake with pears poached in red wine and an espresso with a shot of cognac awaited us before we enjoyed a fillet of venison in a crisp bread crust on a porcini cream sauce with cranberries. Water released cask char and melted butter before the scent of camphor, coconut and chocolate combined with a fruity earthiness took centre stage. The taste was that of macerated strawberries with balsamic and black pepper and a cocoa flavour that is often found right at the beginning of smoking a good cigar. After nine years in an ex-bourbon hogshead, we transferred this whisky into a 1st fill American oak PX Sherry hogshead.

The aroma reminded us of a good Sunday lunch, pomegranate ginger glazed roast pork tenderloin and carrots or a herb-crusted leg of lamb with a red wine gravy. Big, no massive, on the palate neat! Heat alert, a thick and bold, spicy and slightly smoky Szechuan sauce. Water tamed the beast a little, a Thai tamarind stir fry or a Garam Masala chicken curry on the nose while the taste was that of macerated berries in a Greek Yoghurt with plenty of cinnamon, nutmeg and maze. Following seventeen years in an ex-bourbon hogshead, we transferred this whisky into a 1st fill Spanish oak Oloroso hogshead.

Have you ever had pork tenderloin with a savoury balsamic raspberry sauce? If not, this was the aroma, which came to mind nosing neat. Too exotic, well how about the taste then – pigeon breast with red wine gravy, roast leeks and wild mushrooms? Water added chocolate porcini puree, toasted coconut flakes in a prune sauce on the nose while on the palate very umami; mushrooms sautéed in butter, crispy fried onion rings and poached cherries in spiced red wine sauce. After twelve years in an ex-bourbon hogshead, we transferred this whisky into a 1st fill Spanish oak Oloroso hogshead.

Someone was making fudge in a hot kitchen. There was also orange toffee bonbons, ripe kumquat, dried flowers and cantaloupe melon. Beyond that the panel also noted the fizz of Lambrusco, black pepper and a saline tang of oloroso. With water out came ice cream wafers, strawberries with balsamic drizzle, sherry vinegar, serrano ham and honey roast peanuts. The palate was initial silky and inviting. Notes of cloudy apple juice, bitter marmalade and white miso. The spice builds steadily along with notes of dark chocolate. With water we found green ginger wine, honey nut cereal, molten marshmallow and mango chutney. Matured for 8 years in a bourbon hogshead before transfer to a 1st fill oloroso hogshead. and charred pineapple.

At first a buttery sweetness washed over apple crumble, melon and mango before fondant icing was discovered on candied citrus and sticky syrup. Ginger, nutmeg and vanilla combined on the palate with strawberry sweets, fudge and black tea in a wooden cup. A little water brought the oak forward where it fused with sweet nuts, orange sherbet and Turkish delight on a bed of fresh hay. The palate was now creamy and buttery along with ginger, cinnamon and frankincense spice. Coconut husk had arrived with dried herbs, rose water and marzipan while on the finish came dark chocolate, aniseed and cloves.

A typically rich and satisfyingly deep aroma to begin, lots of malt syrup, mothballs, cough mixtures and herbal resins all betray this is an older style highland malt. We also noted toasted nuts, bergamot, citronella wax and tea tree oil. With water we found milk bottle sweets, cold cubes, vanilla sponge cake and dusty waxy tones. The neat palate opened in classically waxy and syrupy form, lots of tinned fruit juices, myrtle, wintergreen, herbal teas, ointments and spiced custard. With water emerged lemon oils, fir wood, hardwood resins, furniture oil, camphor and honeyed brioche toast. and charred pineapple.

A wonderfully fresh and inviting nose we agreed. All on snapped green twigs, undergrowth, vase water, crushed ferns and damp, mossy logs in a forest. Beyond that we also noted barley water and lemon cordial. Reduction gave us crisper cereal tones, cooking oils, Bakelite and barely sugars. The neat palate was robust, full bodied and full of citrus cordials, grapefruit peel and malt extract. Some dilution unveiled an oilier, more mechanical side, with hessian, bouillon, plasticine, citrus curds and vanilla foam.

On the nose, a flurry of fruits (peach, pear, blackcurrant, gooseberry, damson) is followed by Battenberg cake and hints of liquorice and oak. The palate is an enigma of sweetness and wood – vanilla custard meets dark chocolate, orange oil, crystallised ginger, cinnamon and chewed pencils. The reduced nose gets more stone fruits, cherry yoghurt and a teasing mixture of meadow flowers, pollen dust, nettles, rosemary and a heathery hillside. The palate remains bold and vigorous – butterscotch, toffee, Iced Gems and honey on freshly baked crusty bread, some floral notes and a tingling finish of ginger, pine wood and Extra Strong mints and charred pineapple.

We had a quality fish and chips in brown sauce sitting on the harbour wall in Stromness watching the ferry disappear into the sunset and we washed it down with honey blood orange margaritas with smoky lime salt. It was getting cold and we moved into the cottage with a roaring peat fire warming us quickly as we enjoyed slices of fudge and smoky tea penicillin, a cocktail using lemon juice, honey-ginger syrup, Lapsang Souchong tea and sweet smoky whisky – worked absolute wonders as we had a fun filled evening telling stories. After 17 years in an ex-oloroso butt, we transferred this whisky into a first fill PX Sherry butt.
