KÆRE MEDLEM

Tak for et forrygende gensyn rundt på landets Casual Days – det var skønt at se så mange glade medlemmer igen!

Inden vi tager hul på endnu en omgang Casual Days i oktober/november, får du mulighed for at nyde september Outturnet hjemme i stuen alene, eller sammen med gode venner. Selve Outturnet kan du læse om på de næste sider, og min gode ven og ambassadør i København, Gorm Jensen, kigger forbi Vejle lørdag den 18. september, hvor vi sammen smager på de 9 aftapninger. Vi sender på Facebook kanalen kl. 14.00, og har du lyst til at smage med, så kan sættet allerede nu købes på smws.dk under smagninger.

I forhold til SMWS Festival 2022: Har du brug for hjælp til at finde overnatning, så kan du fra den 8. september sende en mail til tko@smws.dk, så får vi booket jer ind i ToRVEhallerne og på CabInn. Programmet med alle smagningerne forventes stadig udsendt den 24. september.

Vi har besluttet at lave sommerens hvervekampagne permanent. Med andre ord, skaffer du et nyt medlem, så vil vi ligeledes i fremtiden kvittere med en flaske single cask whisky fra SMWS. Husk at minde det kommende medlem om at notere hvem der har anbefalet, så vi er sikre på at hvervegaven finder sin rette ejermand.

God fornøjelse med læsningen, og på virtuelt gensyn den 18. september.

Med venlig hilsen
Thomas Korsgaard

TREATS FROM THE FOREST OF ASGAARD

SWEET, FRUITY & MELLOW

We took place in a wooden shelter in the forest of Asgaard and feasted on all its glories. The nose brought us green apples, pears, a hint of coconut, vanilla bourbon custard and a sweet smell of a Haribo candy factory. Some distant waxy citrus notes blended with the pine and oak trees. On the reduced nose, we went overboard in tropical fruits, berries, pineapples, sour apple winegums with the delight of sweet tobacco to finish it off. The palate was chewy with spiced wood bitterness, cornflakes with vanilla and a hint of pepper, the dessert came after a while in the shape of freshly baked applepie. We finished the feast with a cocktail party, as the reduced palate invites us to drink limefruit mescal, tropical sangria, bitter herbs and mint in Irn-Bru. The finish was as we expected, as mighty as the Gods of Asgaard – Powerful!

We brewed ourselves a white peach blossom tea with natural essences of succulent peaches and tangerines as we tucked into a freshly baked old-fashioned peach cobbler. On the palate neat, the peaches were poached in a white wine syrup but with a Middle Eastern twist as they were served with rosewater yoghurt. After reduction, we had that dream combination of sweet fruity strawberries with creamy vanilla in a moist Swiss roll. This was then accompanied by a raspberry peach white sangria using a fruity, floral and slightly sweet Moscato perfectly balanced with a dry Riesling wine.

WHITTLING OVER A BARBECUE

A big and robust nose greeted the panel. Dark chocolate, freshly toasted wood, BBQ embers, marzipan and flowers in a hot greenhouse. Beyond that we also found crystallised ginger, whittled pencils, hot shoe polish, putty and dried tarragon. Reduction brought sour cherries, old varnished hardwoods, subtle white truffle and boozy Black Forest gateau. The neat palate was spicy and immediately hefty. Superbly toasty, warm, lots of liquorice, birch beer, turmeric and toasted fennel seed. Water unearthed some medicinal notes like wintergreen and also root beer, dark fruit chutneys, maple pecan Danish pastries, Jäger Bombs and blood orange marmalade. Matured for 11 years in an America oak Oloroso sherry butt, before transfer to a 1st fill Spanish oak PX sherry butt.

A fascinating 'struggle' between an 'old-school' meaty spirit and the cask maturation - how about cooking a beef filet mignon with a garlic beurre noisette. Big and characterful on the palate, braised beef cheeks with pear and bitter chocolate sauce served with Japanese vegetable tempura fritters. With water, the nose turned even more meaty, gamey and oily, hints of garlic even. We decided on a sausage, apple and potato one-pan roast. The taste like beef rolls, thin seasoned beef slices wrapped around a pickle spear, bacon and onion all spread thinly with mustard served with dumplings and red cabbage. After fifteen years in an ex-bourbon hogshead, we transferred this whisky into a shaved-toasted-re-charred and oloroso seasoned 1st fill barrique.

A sweet honeysuckle aroma greeted us before the scent of chamomile, white chocolate, coconut coulis and toasted marshmallows graced us with their presence. On the palate fresh and vibrant with a smooth texture like a cup of gooseberry rooibos tea infused with lemon and a faint herbaceous smoke of singed rosemary in the finish. When we added water fruity aromas like oranges, grapes and mango appeared before the deeper scent of Turkish delight came to the fore. On tasting it we found ourselves barefoot on a sandy beach caressed by a lovely warm breeze making the living feel easy.

A childhood favourite for many came to mind on the nose neat; banana split with pineapple or as it is also called, an all-American banana split. The ingredients are banana, pineapple chunks, vanilla and chocolate ice cream, whipped cream, chopped peanuts, chocolate syrup and a couple of Maraschino cherries. On the palate two 'sucky-sweets' came to mind; pine sap pastilles La Vosgienne and Ricola revitalizing herb drops with an effervescent lemon zest centre. Water elevated the aroma to fairy cakes with a lemon icing, strawberry coulis, buttery shortbread and Battenberg cake, while to taste - lemon Angel Delight with a fizzy ginger and oak flavoured prosecco in the finish.

A rather left-field aroma we thought. Initial notes of chamois leather, new trainers, after dinner mints, hot Velcro, putty, camphor and aged fernet branca were all noted by the Panel. With water we found dried flowers, clay, strawberry milk lollies, vase water, exotic diluting juice, pollens and mineral oil rubbed into sandalwood. The palate showed a robust oiliness with sunflower oils, putty, camphor, bike chain grease and then a dovetail to sugar puffs, wintergreen, fresh herbs, crushed aspirin, turmeric and rosewater-dipped sponge cake. With reduction came waxes, custard creams, marshmallows, shoe polish and dried banana chips. Some almonds and apricot in the aftertaste.

The nose evoked a campfire – toasted marshmallows, bacon crisps, green olives with lemon and thyme. The neat palate was a sudden firing up of our internal combustion engines – salty olives, pickled ginger and jalapenos, chocolate limes, tarry smoke, coal-tar soap and chewing willow twigs. The reduced nose was quite fresh – cucumber raita, Glacier mints, lime juice on mango, salty feta and honeyed baklava - somewhere between waves crashing on the shore and an old-fashioned steamie. The palate became sweeter and fruitier but retained an enjoyable, gentle astringency – lemon zest and gorse, with leather, walnuts and coffee grounds on the finish.

A big peaty fruitiness combined with a floral note before we made nutty vanilla pancakes served with apricot jam. The arrival on the palate was very silky and smooth but at the same time super smoky tropical fruits as well as cream soda and candy canes. With the addition of water, we found ourselves surprisingly in sand dunes with the fresh wind carrying aromas of gorse, elderflower, hay and grass. To taste still very smoky and very sweet like the American campfire treat called smoky S'more candy bars; chocolate, smoked sugar, toasted marshmallow with smoked nougat and graham crackers.
